

Joint seminar Family Law and Migration
A meeting of practice and research
Club University Foundation, Room Felicien Cattier
11 Egmont Street, Brussels
25 June 2024, 14:00 - 16:30

This event will take place in Dutch and English, with French if necessary. No simultaneous interpretation will be provided, but informal summaries possible to enable smooth debate.

14:00: Introduction and Welcome by Frederik Swennen (University of Antwerp)

14:10: Panel 1 – How to translate the FAMIMOVE research findings to the Belgian & Dutch practice

Chairs: Thalia Kruger (University of Antwerp) and Susan Rutten (Maastricht University)

15:10: Panel 2 – Needs for further research on the interface between Family Law and Migration

Chairs: Ellen De Smet (Ghent University) and Patrick Wautelet (University of Liège)

16:10: Conclusions by Elise Goossens (University of Antwerp)

RETHINKIN_ is the hub for pioneering socio-legal basic research in family law in the Low Countries. Led by Prof. Frederik Swennen and Prof. Elise Goossens from UAntwerp (Belgium), it has been funded by the Research Council Flanders as a scientific research network since 2015.
www.rethinkin.eu

FAMIMOVE is co-funded by the European Commission